

MARKET ANALYSIS & LISTING PROPOSAL · OCTOBER 19, 2026

700 Amaretto Avenue

Pickering · Amberlea · Prepared for Brenda and John Liska

Prepared by Terrence Marshall, CPA · REALTOR® · CPA · Team Lead
SYNERGY Real Estate Group · REAL Broker Ontario Ltd., Brokerage

Brenda, John — thank you for having me through. I live a minute from your door, so I will be direct with you. This house needs everything: the bathrooms, the windows, the carpet, the kitchen cabinets, the garage, the electrical panel, the furnace, and a laundry room that is still sitting unfinished in a bedroom. That is not a reason to spend money before selling it. It is the reason not to. Everything that follows is the evidence, from one MLS® pull run on October 19.

SECTION 01 · THE PROPERTY

2,473 square feet on a lot more than twice the local average.

Built in 1984. The roof is about three years old — the one big item behind you. Most of the rest is original or deferred, and we would rather set it out plainly than let a buyer's inspector find it.

ABOVE-GRADE FLOOR AREA	2,473 sq ft — MPAC Residential Floor Area Report
LOT	12,195 sq ft (0.28 acre), irregular — corner, facing the road
BUILT	1984 · detached 2-storey
BEDROOMS / BATHS	4 · 2 full + 1 half — all three bathrooms original
GARAGE	Attached, 2 spaces — needs replacing. Side entrance from the garage
BASEMENT	Unfinished — and the side entrance does not currently reach it
2025 PROPERTY TAX	$7,291
ASSESSMENT	$566,000 (2026 phased-in, based on January 1 2016)
ZONING	S2 · abuts a hydro corridor
PIN	263710112 · Plan 40M1312, Lot 53

MPAC Residential Floor Area Report, Teranet GeoWarehouse® for PIN 263710112, and the walkthrough of October 19, 2026. Condition notes from the owners and that visit, to be confirmed.

A corner lot facing the road, with the hydro corridor behind. Both are priced into the analysis that follows.

The house, item by item

- Roof replaced approximately three years ago
- Air conditioning about five years · deck 2019 · foyer floors redone · water heater 2011, owned · some windows replaced
- Kitchen: newer stove, fridge and countertop; cabinets painted and peeling
- Three bathrooms original · windows from 2000 with moisture, mould and rusted frames · carpet 1999 · garage · 100 amp service · furnace and humidifier 2007 · living-room lighting
- Basement unfinished, no rough-in and no bathroom · laundry room incomplete inside a bedroom

SECTION 02 · THE MARKET RIGHT NOW

Pickering has traded around a million dollars all year. Homes listed in September and October sold in eleven days.

100%

of asking, October 1–19 · median 10.5 days — the firmest month of the year

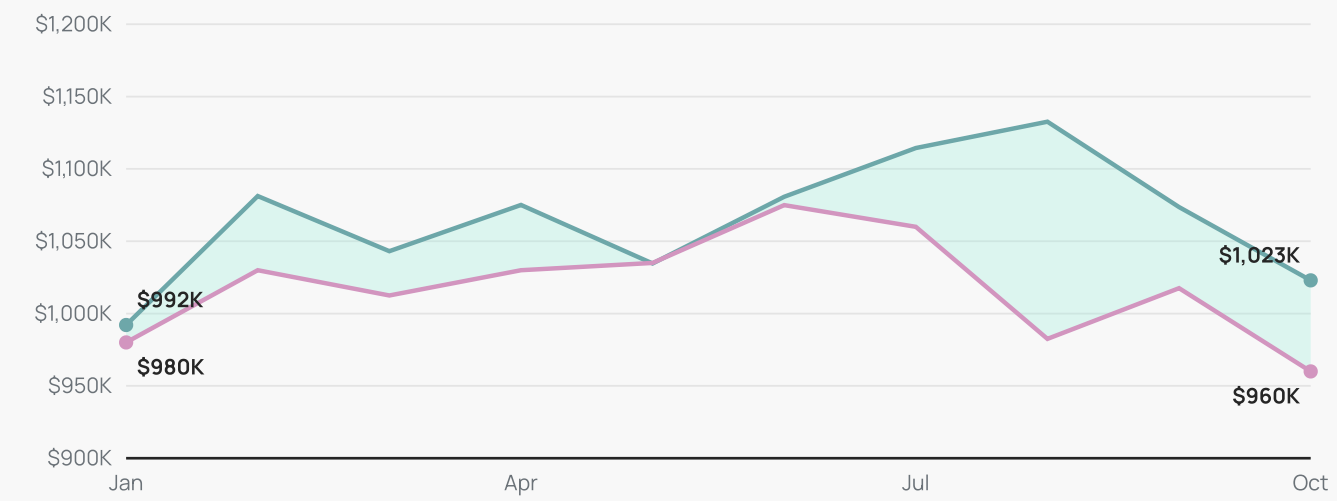

$470 → $469

per square foot, first quarter to third — flat, so these sales need no adjusting for time

5.14%

BMO five-year fixed, up 20 points on October 7, while the Bank of Canada held at 2.25%

PICKERING DETACHED SALE PRICES BY MONTH, 2026 — AVERAGE AND MEDIAN

Average sale price

Median sale price — the typical home. The gap between the two lines is the mix: when a few large homes sell, the average lifts and the median does not.

SYNERGY's own MLS® pull, October 19, 2026: 492 Pickering detached sales. October is a partial month. The vertical axis starts at $900,000 rather than zero, so the movement is readable.

I am not going to tell you the market is falling and you must act today. It is not and you do not.

The chart shows the typical Pickering detached sale rising through the summer and easing back into the autumn. That looks like prices moving, and mostly it is not — it is a change in what sold. Price per square foot, which strips the size of the house out of the comparison, ran $470 in the first quarter, $475 in the second and $469 in the third. Flat. That is why the sales in this document need no adjusting for time, and it is the single most common mistake made when reading a market: the average tells you what sold, not what homes are worth.

What has genuinely changed is borrowing. The Bank of Canada has held its rate at 2.25%, but a buyer's budget is set by the fixed rate, which is priced off the bond market rather than the Bank. Five-year yields rose through early October and lenders followed — BMO went up 20 points to 5.14% on October 7.

SECTION 03 · THE COMPARABLE SALES

Seven sales set this price. One of them is the same house as yours.

These are the sales the valuation rests on. 658 Cognac Crescent is the same builder layout at the same 2,473 square feet — it carries more weight than the other six together.

1911 Rosebank Rd Amberlea	$850,000	$799,900	106.3%	7	2,138	$398	Unfinished	As-is, offer date

SYNERGY's own MLS® pull, October 19, 2026, from PropTx MLS® data. Shortlisted from the full Pickering detached set to the sales that determine the valuation. Basement and condition read from each listing's own description. 560 Steeple Hill reports a 2,000–2,500 sq ft band rather than an exact figure.

SECTION 04 · WHAT THESE SALES TELL US

658 Cognac is your house. The rest set the floor and the ceiling.

658 Cognac Crescent — the same floorplan as yours

$1,025,000

2,473 SQ FT · IDENTICAL BUILDER LAYOUT · SOLD MARCH 2026

Two copies of the same house. Three differences: their basement is partly finished with a two-piece bath and a shower rough-in, yours is unfinished with neither; their home was liveable, yours is mostly original; they sit on an interior street on half your land, you face the road on a corner with a hydro corridor behind. $1,025,000 is your ceiling — what this house is worth finished, on a quiet street. Section 05 works down from it.

552 and 560 Steeple Hill

$900,000 and $860,000

SAME STREET, SAME YEAR, BOTH NEEDING WORK — AND BOTH WITH FINISHED BASEMENTS

552 asked $1,199,000, the price of a finished house, and took 111 days to sell at $900,000. 560 asked $849,000, said plainly it was sold as is, and was gone in six days above asking. Both had more finished space below grade than you do.

1911 Rosebank Road · Amberlea

$850,000

2,138 SQ FT · AS-IS · UNFINISHED BASEMENT · SOLD IN 7 DAYS

The closest match in condition — as-is, unfinished, pre-list inspection offered to buyers, contents left behind. It is 335 square feet smaller than yours, with no corridor and no road frontage.

692 Amaretto Avenue · four doors away

$1,020,000

2,655 SQ FT · SOLD IN 6 DAYS, JANUARY

You will have this number in mind. It is 182 square feet larger, it sold in a stronger month, and it showed well. At $384 a square foot it is still the lowest rate of any Amberlea sale this size — that is your street in the numbers.

SECTION 05 · WHAT IT IS WORTH

Estimated market value.

The shaded band is the estimated value range; the dot is the midpoint.

Consideration	Effect on value
658 Cognac Crescent — the same floorplan, the same 2,473 sq ft, sold March 2026	$1,025,000
No adjustment for time: price per square foot was flat across all three quarters	none
Your lot is more than double theirs, on a corner	+$15,000 to +$25,000
Their basement is partly finished with a 2-piece bath and shower rough-in. Yours is unfinished, with neither, and the side entrance does not reach it	−$35,000 to −$45,000
Condition — the work needed to bring yours to their standard, not to renovate it	−$100,000 to −$130,000
Corner facing the road, hydro corridor behind; theirs is an interior street	−$40,000 to −$55,000
Indicated range	$810,000 – $875,000
Cross-check — 552 Steeple Hill, within 1.5% of your size, needed work and still had a finished two-bedroom suite	$900,000
Cross-check — 1911 Rosebank, as-is and unfinished, but 335 sq ft smaller with no corridor	$850,000
Most likely	$830,000 – $860,000

$830,000 – $860,000

estimated market value · midpoint $845,000

suggested list range if pricing to value

Why this method. Comparing two copies of the same house and pricing the differences is the most reliable valuation there is. 658 Cognac gives us that, in your community, seven months ago.

This is built from records and one visit — no rooms measured, no mechanicals inspected. A home inspection could move it either way, which is why we pay for one before the house goes up.

What we list it at is a separate decision, and a strategic one. It is not the same number as the value, and it is the conversation I would like to have with you both in person. It is the first item under next steps.

SECTION 06 · WHO YOU WOULD BE COMPETING WITH

Nine homes your size are for sale. Not one is a project.

A buyer who wants a house to renovate, in Amberlea, at this size, has nothing to choose from right now. You would be the only one.

The finished homes are asking $1,095,000 to $1,100,000 — and the one out longest, at $1.1M, has sat 59 days and already cut its price.

2081 Lynn Heights Dr · Liverpool

$949,999

35 DAYS · POWER OF SALE · ORIGINALLY $1,064,900

Started at $1,064,900, has cut 10.8%, and is still sitting after 35 days. A compromised property priced near a million does not move here.

648 Cognac Cres · Amberlea

$949,900

18 DAYS · WELL KEPT, PREMIUM PRIVATE LOT

Two streets away and in better condition. If you price near a million, this is what a buyer compares you to.

1713 Kirkwood Lane · Amberlea

$899,999

13 DAYS · LARGE LOT, SOME UPGRADES

A large lot with some upgrades, out under two weeks. Worth watching before we go live.

705 Edgewood Rd · Amberlea

$850,000

13 DAYS · POOL SOLD AS-IS, FIREPLACE AS-IS

The floor of the Amberlea market at this size, and it carries its own as-is caveats.

SYNERGY's own MLS® pull, October 19, 2026: Pickering detached active listings, 2,000–2,500 sq ft. Days on market and original list prices as reported on MLS®.

SECTION 07 · WHO BUYS A HOME LIKE YOURS

Two buyers, and both want exactly what you have.

The gap between a house that needs work and a finished one at this size is roughly $130,000. That gap is a renovator's margin — it is why this buyer exists and why they move fast.

The contractor or investor

They price the work rather than fear it. A 100 amp panel and a 2007 furnace are line items, and the roof already being done is what makes the file work. The side entrance from the garage, with room for a walk-up, is the detail that decides it. With nine listings your size on the market and not one a project, they have nowhere else to go.

The family renovating to stay

Trading up within Amberlea, often with parents to accommodate. They want the schools, a real lot and a layout they can change — and at 12,195 square feet your lot is in the top tenth of anything selling at this size.

Who will not buy it

The buyer who wants to move in and change nothing. They are served by the homes asking $1,095,000 and up. Chasing them is how a house ends up where 552 Steeple Hill ended up.

SYNERGY's own MLS® pull, October 19, 2026. Buyer types are drawn from what the comparable sales and current listings actually offered — bedroom and bathroom counts, second kitchens, walkouts and stated condition — not from assumptions about who lives in Amberlea.

CHOOSE YOUR LEVEL OF SERVICE

Two levels of service. The same duty of care in both.

Everything in the first rows is a professional obligation we owe you whatever you pay. It appears in both columns because it is never optional.

The clear-out and the pre-listing inspection are not extras. They are inside the fee.

About the clear-out. There is a great deal to move, and that is the single most common reason a sale slips by months. We rent the bin, put it on the driveway and bring a crew once you have taken what you want. Then a professional clean. You lift nothing and pay nothing extra — a $3,000 to $4,000 value inside the fee.

Rates shown are total commission including the co-operating brokerage's share, plus HST. Commission is negotiable.

WHAT WE DO FOR YOU

Step one: we empty the house. You lift nothing and you pay nothing for it.

THE BIN ARRIVES FIRST. Before any photograph is taken, we put a bin on your driveway and bring a crew in to clear everything you are not keeping. That is a $3,000 to $4,000 job and it is inside our fee.

From the bin arriving to the house being live on MLS® is five to seven days.

STEP 1 — WE EMPTY THE HOUSE

The bin arrives — on your driveway, at our cost

Our crew clears the house — once you have taken out what you are keeping

Professional cleaning — every room, before a camera comes near it

STEP 2 — WE PREPARE IT

Pre-listing home inspection — paid for by us and given to every buyer

Professional photography — for MLS®, print and social

Video and drone — the lot is an asset — we show it from above

Floor plans — so buyers can plan the work before they offer

STEP 3 — WE LAUNCH IT

Live on MLS® and realtor.ca — and every major portal

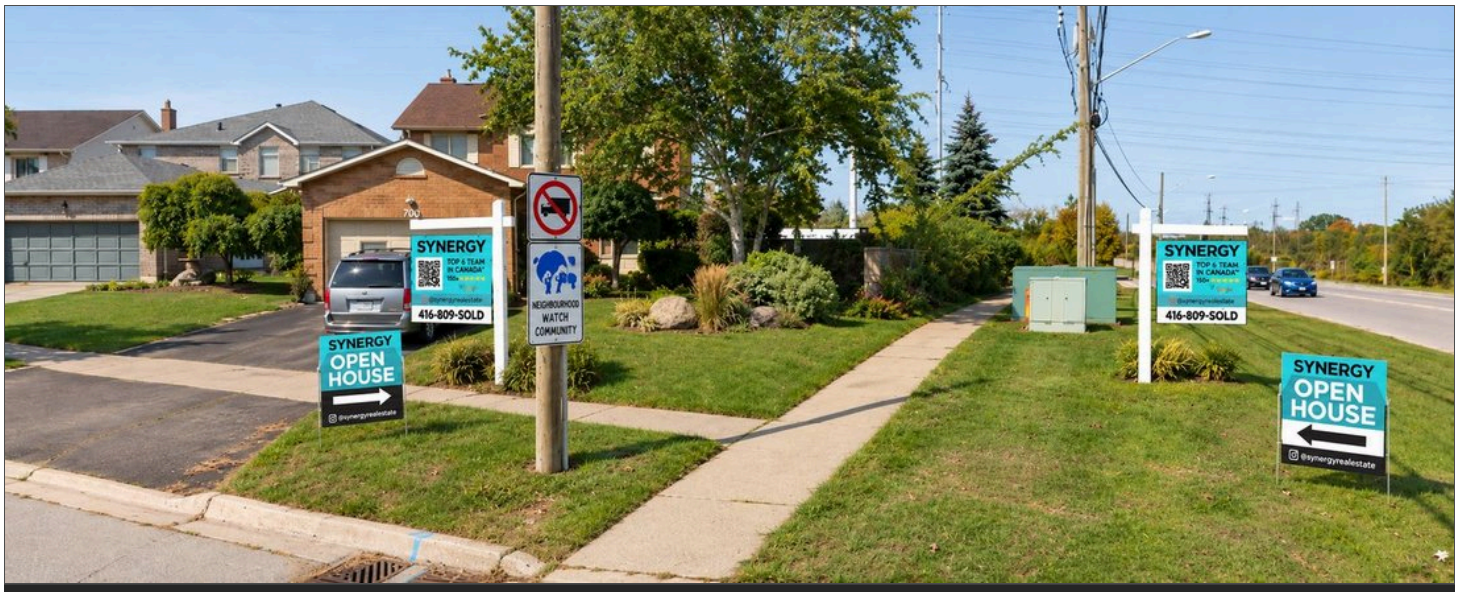

Paid campaign across six pages — aimed at Durham and east Toronto

Signage and open houses — both weekend days

Offers reviewed on a set date — buyers compete with each other, not with you

Your corner is the reason signage works here — two frontages, and traffic on both.

Open house directional signs, both weekend days, ahead of the offer date.

QUESTIONS SELLERS ASK

Questions worth asking.

Should we renovate before selling?

No. You have put the work at $180,000. Even if it went perfectly and the house then fetched what a finished one does — about $1,058,000, judging by 1067 Maury, the one updated home that also backs a hydro corridor — you would clear roughly $874,000 after the cost and four months of carrying. That is about $30,000 more than selling now, and only if nothing goes wrong. Realistically $180,000 does not finish a house with original paint, wallpaper, three original bathrooms and a 100 amp panel. What it buys leaves you between $756,000 and $793,000 — behind where you are today.

What about doing just part of it?

That is the worst outcome. The contractor who would have paid for the opportunity no longer sees one, and the buyer who wants to move in still sees work. 552 Steeple Hill was exactly that house: it asked a finished price, took 111 days, and sold a quarter below asking.

Does the hydro corridor hurt us?

It costs something and we have measured it rather than guessed. The one comparable backing a hydro field sold at $428 a square foot while similar updated homes reached $456 to $484, and it took the longest to sell of any of them. It is already inside the valuation. A buyer's agent will raise it — better that we raise it first, with a number attached.

Will the 100 amp service and the 2007 furnace frighten buyers?

Not the buyer we are aiming at, and not if we disclose them. A contractor prices a panel and a furnace without blinking. What frightens buyers is finding things out late — which is why we pay for an inspection before the house goes up and hand it to everyone.

Will I owe tax on the sale?

For a home you have lived in, the principal-residence exemption generally covers the gain. It is the exceptions that cost people money — years the home was rented, a basement suite, land over half a hectare, a period of non-residency. Ask us and we will walk your ownership history year by year.

Who clears the house?

We do. Bin, crew, professional clean. You lift nothing and it is not billed to you.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

A pricing strategy session first.

Nothing here commits you to anything. The valuation is in Section 05; what we list it at is a different decision, and a strategic one. That is the conversation to have together.

Step one · the pricing strategy session	Half an hour at your kitchen table. We go through this document, then the part that is not in it — what to list at, whether to set a date for reviewing offers, and how we bring several buyers through on the same weekend rather than waiting for one. There is more than one way to do this and the right answer depends on what matters most to you.
Step two · you decide what you are keeping	Walk the house and set aside what comes with you. Everything else is ours to handle.
Step three · we empty it	Bin on the driveway, crew in, professional clean. At our cost.
Step four · we prepare it	Pre-listing inspection, photography, video and drone, floor plans. Five to seven days from the bin arriving.
Step five · we launch it	Live on MLS®, open houses both weekend days, and offers reviewed on the date we agreed. You will hear from me throughout, not only when there is news.

From the day you say go, roughly two weeks to offers in hand.

— WHEN YOU'RE READY

Read it over, then let's talk it through.

There is no decision to make today, and take as long as you need with it. When you are ready I am a minute away. If you believe a sale is in your best interest we are glad to explore it together — and if the answer is to stay, that is a perfectly good answer too.
